

Report on Extension Lecture

The Department of Management Studies, J.C. Bose University of Science and Technology, YMCA, Faridabad, organized an extension lecture on the theme “Entrepreneurship vs Employability – Choosing Your Path” on 16th September 2025 at 9:00 AM. The session was held at the Department of Management Studies and was graced by the presence of Prof. Rakesh Mudgal as the expert speaker. The event was conducted under the guidance of Prof. Ashutosh Dixit, Dean, Faculty of Management Studies, and Dr. Rajiv Sindwani, Chairperson of the Department of Management Studies, with coordination support from Dr. Renu Aggarwal

The primary objective of the lecture was to create awareness among students about the critical choice between entrepreneurship and employability as career paths. Prof. Rakesh Mudgal highlighted the qualities required for becoming an entrepreneur, such as innovation, risk-taking, decision-making, and resilience. He also emphasized the importance of employability skills including adaptability, effective communication, teamwork, and domain knowledge. The lecture provided students with practical insights into how they could align their personal strengths, goals, and aspirations with either entrepreneurial ventures or professional employment.

The session was highly interactive, with students actively participating in discussions and seeking clarity on various aspects of both career options. Real-life examples and case studies shared by the speaker made the session more engaging and relatable. The lecture not only motivated students to explore entrepreneurial opportunities but also encouraged them to enhance their employability skills to remain competitive in the job market.

Overall, the extension lecture was a great success as it helped students broaden their perspective about future career choices. It provided them with the confidence to evaluate their own capabilities and interests in order to choose the right professional path. The Department of Management Studies reaffirmed its commitment to organizing such intellectually enriching events that prepare students for the dynamic world of work and enterprise.
