Subject: - To wear original University Identity Card by all students.

It has been observed by the security personnel in the past that mostly students of the University are not found in possession of wearing their original Identity Card in their neck with cord which creates a lot of inconvenience by the security staff to identify the students in a very close entry timings.

Hence, all students are hereby advised to wear the original University Identity Card at all time during the course of their stay in the university campus and also co-operate the security personnel in this regard to avoid any laps in the security measures. This will also help to identify outsiders in the university campus.

Any soft copy of Identity Card in the mobile phone is not allowed.

FIR (if any) will be valid for one week only.

All students will ensure the above order for strict compliance, failing which strict action will be taken and no excuse will be entertained later on.
